■ Teaser Site Launched Ahead of Spring 2025 Opening for "Dorsett by Agora Osaka Sakai"

"Dorsett by Agora Osaka Sakai" is ideally located just a 10-minute train ride from the heart of Osaka's Minami district, Namba. The hotel is situated in a prime location surrounded by Osaka's only World Heritage site, the "Mozu-Furuichi Kofun Group," as well as areas rich in the history and culture of Sakai. Within Sakai City, visitors can explore traditional townscapes from the Edo period, historic commercial districts, and ancient shrines, offering a close encounter with Japan's deep history and culture. The hotel also boasts excellent access to Osaka City, with popular areas like Minami and Kita easily reachable. Kansai Airport is about a 37-minute train ride away, making the hotel conveniently accessible for both domestic and international travelers.

The hotel features a spacious seaside terrace and guest rooms with stunning views of the old Sakai Port. The refreshing and serene atmosphere provides a comfortable welcome for guests. Not only from the guest rooms but also from various parts of the hotel, guests can enjoy beautiful sunsets in the evening and the sparkling night views of Sakai City, offering diverse scenic experiences. During their stay, guests will be treated to special moments that vary with the time of day.
